7 April 2011

All New South Wales barristers' practising certificates expire on 30 June 2011. A new practising certificate has to have been ISSUED before a barrister may practise on and from 1 July 2011.

All practising certificate renewal forms were sent in the post today. If you have not received your forms by next Wednesday 13 April, or have any questions regarding its completion, please contact the Certification Officer Barrie Anthony on 9232 4055, or e-mail certification@nswbar.asn.au.

ALL PRACTISING CERTIFICATE RENEWAL DOCUMENTATION AND PAYMENT MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE ASSOCIATION BY 7 JUNE 2011 OTHERWISE A LATE FEE APPLIES.

If you have not secured insurance by the due date, do not delay returning your completed renewal form and payment by 7 June. Preliminary processing of your practising certificate can begin whilst you are waiting for confirmation of insurance. However, your practising certificate cannot be issued until proof of insurance coverage has been received.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE

Four policies have been approved by the Attorney General pursuant to s.403 (2) of the Legal Profession Act 2004. These policies are being offered by Aon Risk Services (CGU), Marsh Pty Ltd, Suncorp Metway Insurance Limited and Willis Australia Limited (Allianz).

Copies of the approved policies and a table comparing the policies are on the Association's website www.nswbar.asn.au and are also available at the Association's Reception. Please note that there are differences between the policy wordings offered by each of the brokers. The excesses also vary. It is the responsibility of each barrister to satisfy himself or herself as to the content of the policies on offer, the terms and conditions, and the premium applicable to them.

All inquiries about the policies, including premium information, should be addressed direct to the brokers/insurers. The Bar Association is unable to provide any advice as to the merits of the policies or an individual's premium
