

Australian Institute of Administrative Law

NSW Chapter

In conjunction with

The Constitutional and Administrative Law
Section of the NSW Bar Association; and

New South Wales Bar Association

The Australian Association of Constitutional Law

---

Presents A Seminar On

The Boundaries of Judicial Review and Justiciability; comparing perspectives from Australia and Canada

Date: Monday, 22 July 2013
Time: 5.30pm –6.30pm
Cost: Free

Place: Banco Court
Supreme Court
Level 13, Queens Square
Sydney NSW 2000

Chair: The Honourable Justice Margaret Beazley AO, President, Court of Appeal

Speaker: Professor Lorne Sossin, Dean of Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, Toronto

Commentator: The Honourable Justice Alan Robertson, Federal Court of Australia

Professor Sossin is an acknowledged authority on the scope of prerogative powers and the role of the courts in overseeing their limits. He is the author of the leading text, Boundaries of Judicial Review: The Law of Justiciability 2nd ed. Professor Sossin is in Australia to deliver the opening address at the AIAL National Conference in Canberra on 18 July and has kindly agreed to speak in Sydney on the issue of justiciability.

To register please contact Sonja Nichols: snichols@chalkfitzgerald.com.au

Phone (02) 9231 4544