NSW Barrister Essentials Online Research Package “NSW Bar Association - Special Member Offer”

Dear Members,

Thomson Reuters is pleased to launch our NSW Barrister Essentials online research package at the special price of only $1,800 inc. GST (annual subscription), equates to $150 inc. GST per month. This offer is now available exclusively to all members of the New South Wales Bar Association for a limited time.

The “NSW Barrister Essentials Package” has been developed in consultation with the New South Wales Bar Association with the primary purpose of providing all Barristers an opportunity to subscribe to trusted core legal research content affordably.

The NSW Barrister Essentials online package comprises of the following four key resources and integrated access provided from our Westlaw AU platform:

FIRSTPOINT ONLINE CASE CITATOR

Powered by The Australian Digest, FirstPoint integrates content from Thomson Reuters’ leading case law research products, such as the Australian Digest and Australian Case Citator. FirstPoint is updated daily and with over 15,000 new cases added every year it ensures your research is always current and accurate. With FirstPoint you can browse or search a comprehensive collection of reported and unreported case records, research the litigation history of a case and read summaries of key cases.

The judicial treatment of a case is clearly flagged so you can determine at a glance whether the case has been overruled and be alerted to more recent judgments on your topic.

From a single screen FirstPoint provides links to full text cases,* authorised reports, cited documents as well as other related Thomson Reuters content.

\ Linking to full text cases available where you have a subscription to the required report.*

COMMONWEALTH LAW REPORTS

Thomson Reuters publishes the largest collection of authorised and specialist law reports including the prestigious Commonwealth Law Reports. As the definitive authorised version of key decisions, these Reports are an essential part of any barrister’s collection. Have confidence in relying on the preferred and most significant information when in court.

Online access includes the full archive of the authorised series as well as PDF versions of the printed report for handing up in court.

The Commonwealth Law Reports have published full text High Court decisions since 1903. Being the authorised reports, every judgment and head note is checked by the judges of the High Court before inclusion in the Commonwealth Law Reports.

UNREPORTED JUDGMENTS

Unreported judgments are important for keeping up-to-date on recent decisions. Unreported judgments are more effectively used in conjunction with a Case Citator (FirstPoint) to determine if a case has been reported or to quickly reference cited and related information to that case.

This easy-to-use service gives you fast access to the latest unreported judgments from around Australia, including the High Court, Federal Court, State Supreme Courts and other selected jurisdictions.

THE LAWS OF AUSTRALIA

A complete library of legal principles, The Laws of Australia covers over 320 topics and every Australian jurisdiction. With unmatched breadth and depth and an easy-to-read style you can quickly acquaint yourself with unfamiliar areas of law. When you access The Laws of Australia you’re accessing the expertise of a team of more than 400 specialist authors and editors, overseen by our Editor in Chief The Hon. Michael Kirby AC CMG.

The Laws of Australia is fully integrated with services such as FirstPoint and the Commonwealth Law Reports.

With thousands upon thousands of links to these and other Thomson Reuters online services, you’re able to navigate a wealth of legal content, finding the information you need quickly, in a service tailored precisely to your needs.
