

A FREE Community
Information Session

No more right to choose?

A community forum on 'Zoe's Law'

Monday 24 February, 5.30pm
Newcastle City Hall, King Street, Newcastle

Since 1971, women in NSW have had ready access to safe abortion. But that may change in March 2014 if a Bill currently before the NSW Upper House is passed.

Colloquially known as 'Zoe's law', the Bill gives rights to an unborn foetus and has the ability to restrict a woman's right to choose and leave doctors who perform abortions open to prosecution.

Our panel of experts, including lawyers, academics and medical professionals, explains what's at stake and lets you know how you can help.

Expert panel

Phillip Boulten SC,
President, NSW Bar Association
Mehreen Faruqi MLC, Greens Member in the Upper House, NSW
Jodi McKay, Director Communications,
Government and Community Affairs,
Family Planning NSW

Hannah Robert, Lecturer in Law,
La Trobe University
Dr Lachlan de Crespigny
Obstetrician, Melbourne
Chaired by Catherine Henry,
Health and Medical Lawyer

CATHERINE HENRY PARTNERS
Health & Relationship Law

All welcome. No bookings required.
Enquiries to info@chpartners.com.au

www.chpartners.com.au Enquiries: 02 4929 3995