

ATTORNEY-GENERAL
THE HON PHILIP RUDDOCK MP

NEWS RELEASE

26 September 2007

216/2007

RE-APPOINTMENT TO DEFENCE DISCIPLINE APPEAL TRIBUNAL

Attorney-General Philip Ruddock today announced the re-appointment of Justice Kevin Duggan AM RFD as a Member of the Defence Force Discipline Appeal Tribunal.

“Justice Duggan has been an asset to the Tribunal and it gives me great pleasure to announce his re-appointment,” Mr Ruddock said.

“Justice Duggan’s appointment will expire in 2011 when he reaches the age of 70.”

Justice Duggan was first appointed to the Defence Force Discipline Appeal Tribunal in 2002 and has been a judge of the Supreme Court of South Australia since 1988.

He held the rank of Major General in the Army Reserve and was awarded the Reserve Forces Decoration in 1988.

Justice Duggan is a former Judge Advocate General of the Australian Defence Force and for his exceptional service to the Australian Defence Force as Judge Advocate General he was made a Member of the Order of Australia in 2002.

Media Contact: Sarah Stock 0419 278 715