Seminar — International Commercial Law and Dispute Resolution: UNIDROIT's Contribution

Presenter: Professor Michael Bonell

Date and time: 26 June 2008, 12:30pm – 2:30pm

Venue: Selborne Chambers, 174 Phillip Street, Sydney

The International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT) is an independent intergovernmental organisation with its seat in Rome, Italy. Its purpose is to study needs and methods for modernising, harmonising and co-ordinating private and in particular commercial law as between States and groups of States.

Membership of UNIDROIT is restricted to States acceding to the UNIDROIT Statute. UNIDROIT's 61 member States are drawn from the five continents and represent a variety of different legal, economic and political systems as well as different cultural backgrounds. The Institute is financed by annual contributions from its member States which are fixed by the General Assembly as well as a basic annual contribution from the Italian Government. Extra-budgetary contributions for purposes identified by the donor may be established (trust funds).

Professor Michael Bonell

Professor Michael Bonell is a Full Professor of Comparative Law at the Law Faculty of the University of Rome I "La Sapienza" and is the Director of the Center for Foreign and Comparative Law Studies in Rome. He will give an in-depth presentation in relation to UNIDROIT's contribution to international commercial law and dispute resolution.
