

NEW SOUTH WALES
BAR ASSOCIATION

Lady Margaret Beaufort and the Law

Presented by: Professor Jane Stapleton

Chair: The Honourable Justice
Virginia Bell AC

NSW Bar Association
Common Room

5.15pm Thursday 14th July 2016

1.5 HOUR SEMINAR
1.5 CPD POINTS IN SUBSTANTIVE
LAW STRAND

Lady Margaret Beaufort was the mother of King Henry VII and, among many other things, established Christ's College, Cambridge in the 1500s. Professor Stapleton's lecture promises to provide a fascinating insight into this remarkable woman and her relationship with the law.

The Annual Forbes Lecture is an important event in the Forbes Society calendar. Please show your support and join us on Thursday 14th July at 5.15pm in the NSW Bar Association Common Room.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF
THE FRANCIS FORBES SOCIETY FOR LEGAL HISTORY

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED

For more information, please contact Tiffany McDonald tmcdonald@nswbar.asn.au OR (02) 9232 4919

NSW Bar Association
Selborne Chambers, B/174 Phillip Street, Sydney

cpd Continuing Professional Development

The Francis Forbes Society
For Australian Legal History