

It is with great pleasure that we announce the formation of the Society of Construction Law (Australia)

And
We invite you to the Launch of the Society in Sydney

by the Patron of SoCLA His Honour Justice Vickery
Supreme Court of Victoria – Building Cases List Judge

SoCLA is a National body with a founding Council of sixteen members, a Constitution and a website which will operate as the administrative hub. Membership will be drawn from the construction professions, industry representatives and the legal profession

The inspiration for the Australian Society is the exceptional contribution to the subject made by the SCL founded in the UK in 1983. Similar societies include the European SCL, SCL, Hong Kong, Singapore and UAE. The object of the Australian Society stated in the Constitution is:

"... to promote the education, study and research (and publication of the useful results of such research) in the field of construction law and related subjects both in Australia and overseas for the benefit of the public and the construction industry."

The launch of SoCLA will occur across Australia: in Sydney on 22 May, Melbourne on 27 May, Brisbane on 2 June, Perth on 5 June and Adelaide on 9 June 2009.

There is no charge for the event, however, for catering purposes registration will be necessary.

To be held on: Friday 22nd May 2009

Venue: The Institute of Arbitrators & Mediators Australia
Level 9, 52 Phillip Street, Sydney
