

PROPERTY LAW REVIEW

INVITATION FOR SUBMISSIONS

To learn more about Property Law Review, email: lta.propertylr@thomsonreuters.com

LAUNCH OF PROPERTY LAW REVIEW

Thomson Reuters is proud to announce the forthcoming release of Property Law Review, a new peer-reviewed journal exploring important questions of real and personal property with national or international implications.

Launching in September 2010, the journal will publish articles as well as notes, comments and reviews dealing with fundamental questions in property law. The journal will welcome submissions adopting analytical, theoretical, empirical or comparative approaches, analysing recent developments, exploring issues of policy or proposing law reform.

APPOINTMENT OF DISTINGUISHED EDITORS

The three General Editors are Professor Brendan Edgeworth, Dr Lyria Bennett Moses and Ms Cathy Sherry.

Professor Brendan Edgeworth is Head of the School of Law at the University of New South Wales. Professor Edgeworth's teaching and research interests span property law, housing law, law and social theory, and legal history. He is actively involved in the reform of property law and housing law.

Dr Lyria Bennett Moses is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Law at the University of New South Wales where she teaches property law and equity. Previously, she worked as an Associate in Law at Columbia University in New York, a solicitor at Freehills and an Associate to the Honourable Justice Margaret Stone in the Federal Court of Australia. She has completed a doctorate on the Impact of Technological Change on Law from Columbia Law School. Her research also extends to issues surrounding the scope of property law.

Ms Cathy Sherry is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Law at the University of New South Wales. She researches and teaches in the rapidly growing area of strata and community title. Her research covers the technical, theoretical and comparative aspects of urban development and has been published in Australian and international journals.

The General Editors will be working with an Editorial Board of highly distinguished academics and practitioners from Australia and around the world. Board members include Roger Cotterrell, University of London; Susan Bright, University of Oxford; Kevin Gray, University of Cambridge; Joseph Singer, Harvard University; Gregory Alexander, Cornell University; Susan French, University of California, Los Angeles; Andre van der Walt, Stellenbosch University; Larissa Katz, Queens University, Canada; SH Goo, University of Hong Kong; Eileen Webb, University of Western Australia; Pamela O'Connor, Monash University and Victorian Law Reform Commission; Michael Weir, Bond University; Chris Rossiter; Jeremy Stoljar SC; as well as the Honourable Justice Margaret Stone, Federal Court of Australia.

INVITATION FOR SUBMISSIONS

The General Editors are now inviting submissions for articles, comments, reviews or notes for publication in Property Law Review in 2010. The journal welcomes submissions from academics, judges, practitioners and students.

There will be four issues published each year, starting from September 2010.

If you would like to become a contributor or if you have suggestions for the further development of Property Law Review, please email your contribution or comments to lta.propertylr@thomsonreuters.com, for forwarding to the General Editors. Please see the submission requirements on the following page.

To learn more about Property Law Review, email lta.propertylr@thomsonreuters.com.

PROPERTY LAW REVIEW

INVITATION FOR SUBMISSIONS

To learn more about Property Law Review, email: lta.propertylr@thomsonreuters.com

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

All contributions to the journal are welcome and should be emailed to lta.propertylr@thomsonreuters.com for forwarding to the General Editors.

LICENCES

It is a condition of publication in the journal that contributors complete a licence agreement. Licence agreements can be downloaded at http://www.thomsonreuters.com.au/support/as\_contributors.asp and emailed with the submission or mailed separately to the Production Editor, Property Law Review, Thomson Reuters (Professional) Australia Limited, PO Box 3502, Rozelle, NSW 2039.

MANUSCRIPT

- Manuscript must be original, unpublished work that has not been submitted or accepted for publication elsewhere, including for online publication.
- Personal details (name, qualifications, position) for publication and a delivery address, email address and phone number must be included with the manuscript on a separate page.
- Manuscript must be submitted electronically via email in Microsoft Word format.
- Manuscript should generally be in the range of 8,000-12,000 words for articles and 1,500-4,000 words for section commentary or book reviews. These ranges are, however, for guidance only and the submission of manuscripts outside these ranges, for consideration by the General Editors, is welcome.
- An abstract of 100-150 words must be included at the head of articles.
- Authors are responsible for the accuracy of case names, citations and other references. Proof pages will be emailed to contributors but excessive changes cannot be accommodated.
- Graphics (diagrams and graphs) to be grayscale; in jpeg format; no more than 12 cm in width; within a box; of high resolution (at least 300 dpi); font is to be Times New Roman, no more than 10pt. The heading for a graphic should be placed outside the box.

PEER REVIEW

- Each article is, prior to acceptance, reviewed in its entirety by a suitably qualified expert who is independent of the author. This journal complies with the Higher Education Research Data Collection (HERDC) Specifications for peer review.

STYLE

1. Levels of headings must be clearly indicated (no more than four levels).
2. Unpointed style is to be used – there are no full stops after any abbreviation or contraction.
3. Cases:
  - Where a case is cited in the text, the citation follows immediately after the case name, not as a footnote.
  - Authorised reports must be cited if available, and one other reference can be used in addition.
  - For "at" references use the court provided paragraph numbers within square brackets whenever available.
4. Legislation is cited as follows:
  - Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), s 51AC (including in full within footnotes).
5. Books are cited as follows:
  - Butt P, Land Law (6th ed, Thomson Reuters, Sydney, 2010) pp 100-101.
  - In footnotes do not use ibid or op cit. Repeat author surname and add footnote reference to first mention.
  - <sup>1</sup>Hayton D, "Unique Rules for the Unique Institution, The Trust" in Degeling S and Edelman J (eds), Equity in Commercial Law (Lawbook Co, Sydney, 2005) p 284.
  - <sup>2</sup>Hayton, n 1, p 286.
6. Journals are cited as follows:
  - Pottage A, "The Measure of Land" (1994) 57 MLR 361.
  - In footnotes do not use ibid or op cit. Repeat author surname and add footnote reference to first mention.
  - <sup>3</sup>Merrill TW and Smith HE, "Optimal Standardization in the Law of Property: The Numerus Clausus Principle" (2000) 110 Yale LJ 1.
  - <sup>4</sup>Merrill and Smith, n 3 at 4-5.
  - Wherever possible use official journal title abbreviations.
7. Internet references are cited as follows:
  - Ricketson S, The Law of Intellectual Property: Copyright, Designs and Confidential Information (Thomson Reuters, subscription service) at [16.340], www.thomsonreuters.com.au/default.asp viewed 25 June 2009. Underline the URL and include the date the document was viewed.