

LEGAL POSITIONS IN NAURU

The Government of the Republic of Nauru is looking to employ suitably-experienced lawyers in senior full-time positions within the Judiciary and the Department of Justice and Border Control. We need to fill the following three vacancies:

Resident Magistrate

Secretary for Justice and Border Control

Solicitor-General

The positions are funded in partnership with the New Zealand Government, under the Support to Nauru's Justice Sector project, which runs until April 2013. Further information regarding the respective responsibilities of the positions, as well as details of the selection criteria and terms of employment can be obtained by sending an email to <david.lambourne@naurugov.nr>.

Applications close on 7 October 2010.
