

SOLICITOR-GENERAL OF NAURU

The Government of the Republic of Nauru is looking to employ a suitably-experienced lawyer to perform the function as:

Solicitor-General

The position is funded in partnership with the New Zealand Government, under the Support to Nauru's Justice Sector project. Further information regarding the respective responsibilities of the positions, as well as details of the selection criteria and terms of employment can be obtained by sending an email to <lisa.lopiccolo@naurugov.nr>.

Applications close on 14 September 2012.