

NEW SOUTH WALES
BAR ASSOCIATION

The Indigenous Barristers' Trust The Mum Shirl Fund

Application for assistance and relief

The primary focus of the mentoring, employment and other programs and policies run by the NSW Bar Association through the Reconciliation Action Plan, Indigenous Barristers Trust The Mum Shirl Fund and the Indigenous Barristers' Strategy Working Party is to provide assistance, advice and experiences to disadvantaged Indigenous law students and lawyers.

Funding is available for:

- meeting immediate living expenses of Indigenous students undertaking legal or related education, for whom becoming a barrister in New South Wales is a primary career objective, and
- avoiding personal or financial hardship for Indigenous persons attending the NSW Bar Readers program or during the first five years of practice at the NSW Bar.

The NSW Bar Association uses the definition of Aboriginal people and Torres Strait Islanders as adopted by the High Court in the Tasmanian Dams Case (Commonwealth v Tasmania (1983) 158 CLR 1) which is a three part test:

- (i) a person must be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Island descent,
- (ii) who identifies as an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander, and
- (iii) who is accepted by the relevant community as an Aboriginal person or a Torres Strait Islander.

Any Indigenous person who wants to apply to the Trust for funds or participate in any program run by the Association must supply either:

- a certificate of Aboriginality, if they hold one, or
- a letter of support from an Elder in their community (a sample letter is set out in Attachment A)
