SKILLS STRAND

Hament Dhanji SC was appointed as an Advocate for Change by the NSW Bar Association in 2017 for a period of 3 years, recognising his record of fostering fairness, equity and tolerance in a manner that reflects the social and cultural diversity within the legal profession and the communities we serve.

The Advocates for Change program provides role models who are excellent practitioners and who, through the example of what they do and say in their professional lives as barristers, represent the full width of diversity and inclusion that the New South Wales Bar Association wishes to promote at the Bar.

Hament, a member of Forbes Chambers, has practised almost exclusively in criminal law and related areas since he was admitted as a legal practitioner in 1990. He was called to the Bar in 1997 and appointed Silk in 2010. Join us in conversation with Hament to hear about his experiences in practice, being a member of the NSW Bar and how he intends to continue to promote a more diverse and inclusive bar.

This seminar has been organised by the Diversity and Equality Committee of the NSW Bar Association.
