1 HOUR SEMINAR
1 CPD POINT IN THE
SUBSTANTIVE LAW, PRACTICE AND
PROCEDURE, AND EVIDENCE STRAND

On Tuesday 27 August 2019, Dr Elisabeth Peden (3 Wentworth Chambers) and Daniel Tynan (12 Wentworth Chambers) will present a seminar on systemic unconscionable conduct. The presenters will discuss the history and development of the concept of statutory unconscionable conduct and some of the key evidentiary challenges in proving a case alleging such conduct. The presenters will also discuss the implications of the High Court's most recent decision on the topic in ASIC v Kobelt [2019] HCA 18.

Chief Justice Allsop of the Federal Court of Australia will chair the presentation.

This seminar has been organised by the NSW Bar Association's Commercial Law Section.

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
