

Henry Mackenzie Green

Henry Green enlisted on 25 March 1918, aged 36 and listing his occupation as a journalist with the Daily Telegraph. He embarked on Wyreema as acting sergeant on 14 October, but returned from South Africa on account of the Armistice.

He was admitted to the bar on 24 February 1908. Listed as a non-practising barrister. Green was well known in literary circles. He was later the librarian at Fisher Library at the University of Sydney.

Further Details are in the Australian Dictionary of Biography by Joy Hooton