Important Information

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for;
- is common knowledge;
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Claims made basis and retroactive date

This policy is issued on a 'claims made and notified' basis. This means that the policy covers claims:

- first made against you during the period of insurance; and
- you tell us about during the period of insurance.

If the Run Off Cover clause is activated, the policy will provide:

- an additional run-off cover period for you to tell us about claims first made against you during the period of insurance; and
- cover for claims first made against you during the run-off cover period and which you tell us about during the run-off period - provided the claims are based on an act, error, or omission alleged to have been committed prior to the commencement of the run-off cover period.

Pursuant to section 54 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, if you tell us about claims first made against you during the period of insurance (or run-off cover period, if applicable), after the period of insurance and any applicable run-off cover period expires, we may be able to reduce our liability by an amount that fairly represents the extent to which our interests were prejudiced as a result of your delay in notifying us of the claim.

Written notification of facts pursuant to section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984: If during the period of insurance, you learn about facts that might lead to a claim and you tell us in writing about these facts as soon as reasonably practicable after you became aware of those facts but before the end of the period of insurance, we will treat any subsequent claim arising from those facts as though it was made against you during the period of insurance.

The policy doesn't cover claims or potential claims that you knew about prior to the period of insurance which would have put a reasonable person in your position on notice a claim may be made against you. (There are some exceptions to this rule if a 'Continuous Cover' extension applies).

If a retroactive date is applied or shown on the policy schedule, the policy doesn't cover claims resulting from an act or failure to do something before that date.

Average provision

If a payment in excess of the Limit of Indemnity available under your policy has to be made to dispose of a claim, Suncorp's liability for Defence Costs incurred with its consent shall be such proportion thereof as the amount of indemnity available under this policy bears to the amount paid to dispose of the claim payments.

Preservation of rights of recovery / Subrogation waiver

This policy contains provisions that has the effect of excluding or limiting Suncorp's liability for a loss or liability incurred due to the Insured entering into:

- a. any agreement whereby the Insured releases, agrees not to sue or waives or prejudices any rights of recovery; or
- b. any deed or agreement excluding, limiting or delaying the legal rights of recovery against another party; or
- c. any agreement or compromise whereby any rights or remedies to which Suncorp would be subrogated are or may be prejudiced.

Overseas and worldwide activities

If this policy provides cover for the conduct of activities outside of Australia or claims brought in legal jurisdictions outside of Australia, it is possible other countries' laws or regulations may nevertheless prevent this policy from responding to provide that cover. If you conduct activities overseas you may wish to seek advice from a legal or insurance professional who understands the relevant countries' insurance requirements.
