

Webinar Terms and Conditions

1. Disclaimer.

- 1.1 The information provided during a continuing professional development webinar does not, and is not intended to, constitute legal advice; instead, all information, content, and materials available during a webinar are for general informational and educational purposes only. The information provided may not constitute the most up-to-date legal, financial or other information. Registrants should rely upon their own research, or independent advice, in making decisions or providing advice.
- 1.2 Webinars may contain links to other websites over which the NSW Bar Association (NSWBA) has no control. NSWBA makes no representations about the accuracy of the information contained on those websites. Such links are provided for the convenience of the registrant only. The NSWBA is not liable for the content on those websites.
- 1.3 The views expressed are those of the individual presenters, and not necessarily those of the NSWBA. The content is provided "as is;" no representations are made that the content is error-free.
- 1.4 This Disclaimer applies to all continuing professional development content provided by the NSW Bar Association. This Disclaimer may change without notice at the discretion of the NSW Bar Association.

2. Intellectual Property.

- 2.1 Unless otherwise indicated, the NSWBA owns the copyright for the content presented in the webinar. Some of the copyright for the content on this website may be owned by individual presenters and is included on our website under a licence or agreement.

Webinar events and recordings are to be viewed by the registrant only; the content must under no circumstances be recorded or reproduced.

- 2.2 A copy of the webinar paper or presentation may be made available before or after the webinar event at the discretion of the presenter(s) and is for personal/non-commercial use only. The content must not be modified or republished in any way without the prior consent of the presenter.
- 2.3 If you seek to reproduce or otherwise use the content in any way it is your responsibility to obtain approval for such use where necessary. Any breach of copyright, including recording the presentation or any unauthorized use of the material may lead to legal action.

3. Learning Outcomes.

- 3.1 The NSWBA is not liable for the detailed content of any webinars, quality of presentation or if the learning outcomes did not entirely meet the expectations of the registrant.

4. Registrations.

- 4.1 By registering for a continuing professional development webinar, consent is given for application details to be provided to the audio and web-conferencing service provider to set up the webinar.

5. Webinars are recorded

- 5.1 The virtual event facility includes a feature that allows audio and any documents and other materials exchanged or viewed during the session to be recorded. By joining a session, you automatically consent to such recordings.

5.2 Web-event participation may require you to configure your software settings on your web-device upon first use or require you to download the software for your operating system.

6. Webinar materials.

6.1 The webinar presenter may provide reference materials for your use during or after the webinar. These may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- a paper
- a copy of the webinar slides
- sample documents, templates or other material for use during the webinar

6.2 All webinar-related materials remain the copyright of the NSWBA. They must not be distributed to any third party at any time or in any form without written permission from NSWBA.

7. Privacy.

7.1 Any personal information collected by the NSWBA is collected to enable the NSWBA to process your registration to attend a virtual event and to promote other education events and related products and services to you. If you do not provide the information requested, the NSWBA will be unable to process your registration.

7.2 The NSWBA Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access your personal data that is held by NSWBA and seek the correction of that information, as well as, information about how you may complain about any breach of the Australian Privacy Principles by NSWBA.

7.3 If you have any queries about the collection, storage, use or disclosure of your personal information by NSWBA, please contact us at privacy@nswbar.asn.au.
